Part III Line 1a "The Foundations' permanent collections, which were acquired through purchases and contributions from benefactors since the Foundations' inception, are not recognized as assets on the consolidated statements of financial position. Purchases of collection items are recorded as decreases in unrestricted net assets in the year in which the items are acquired. The Foundations' collections are made up of artifacts of historical significance and art objects that are held for educational, research, and curatorial purposes. Each of the items is cataloged, preserved, and cared for, and activities verifying their existence and assessing their conditions are performed continuously. The collections are subject to the Foundations' policy that allows proceeds from their sales or insurance recoveries to be used to acquire other items for collections or to be recorded as increases in net assets."

Part III Line 4 The Robert R. McCormick Museum maintains collections that depict the life and times of its benefactor, Colonel Robert R. McCormick. The collections of the First

Division Museum include primarily memorabilia of the First Infantry Division of the United States Army and Chicago Tribune records. The last will and testament of Colonel McCormick provided that his former residence and 500 acres of land be held in trust in perpetuity as a museum and public park.

Part III Line 4 The display of these collections directly relates to the mission of the Foundation to honor and uphold the provisions of the Colonel's will.

Part V Line 4 The last will and testament of Colonel Robert R. McCormick provided that 500 acres of land in Wheaton, Illinois be held in trust in perpetuity as a public park. The original cost basis of the land has been recorded and is reflected in the financial statements as an $839,000 permanently restricted asset.

Part X Line 2 "The Foundations have received favorable determination letters from the Internal Revenue Service stating that they are exempt from federal income taxes under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, except for income taxes pertaining to unrelated business income. The Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) has issued guidance that requires the tax effects from uncertain tax positions to be recognized in the financial statements only if the position is more likely than not to be sustained if the position were to be challenged by a taxing authority. Management has determined that there are no material uncertain positions that require recognition in the consolidated financial statements. Additionally, no material provision for income taxes is required for the consolidated financial statements. There is no interest or penalties recognized in the statement of activities or statement of financial position. The tax years ended 2013, 2014, 2015, and 2016 are still open to audit for both federal and state purposes."

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 3: Since 2014, Cantigny Foundation has retained Kemper Sports Management, Inc., an unrelated professional service provider, to operate and manage the Cantigny golf and food and beverage operations under Cantigny Foundation's supervision and control. All of Kemper's services must be performed in a manner that furthers the Foundation's charitable and tax-exempt purposes, as determined in the sole discretion of the Foundation, and that principle shall at all times override any profit motive of Kemper Sports Management, Inc. The agreement has a five-year term with options for extension and certain early termination rights. The facilities remain the assets of the Foundation, and the revenues and most expenses continue to be the Foundation's; however the employees of the golf and food and beverage operations are Kemper employees.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b: After the Form 990 has been completed, the Senior Vice President of Operations reviews the document. Once the Senior Vice President is satisfied that the return has been accurately completed in accordance with IRS instructions, the return is reviewed for IRS compliance by the Foundation's legal counsel. Before filing the return, the significant 990 components and form changes are summarized for the Board of Directors. The Chief Financial Officer and Foundation's legal counsel discuss and review the 990 tax return with, and a copy of the return is provided to, the Board of Directors during their regularly scheduled meeting.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c: Annually, the Foundation's Conflict of Interest Policy and Annual Disclosure Statements are distributed to all benefit-eligible employees and Board members. Conflicts identified involving a Board member are referred to legal counsel. Additionally, throughout the year, any third party interactions that may give rise to the appearance of a conflict of interest must be reported
